

Couldn't Your Budget Use Some Extra Money Right About Now?

Preservation grants from the North Carolina Preservation Consortium (NCPC) promote the preservation of collections in libraries, museums, archives, and historic sites; monuments, memorials, and outdoor art; archaeological sites and collections; and historic and cultural architecture. Maximum award is $2,000.00. Grant applications are due March 15th.

Grants may be used to fund the following projects:

- * Preservation assessments
- * Collection assessments
- * Preservation consultations
- * Environmental monitoring equipment
- * Tools and equipment for repair and conservation
- * Conservation of collections
- * Education and training
- * ...or any combination of the above!

Applicants must be institutional members of NCPC. Grants are not awarded to individuals.

Disaster grants from NCPC and NCMC provide up to $1,000 for collection supplies for institutions affected by disasters declared either by the state (North Carolina) or federal authorities. These include but are not limited to hurricanes, floods, tornados, wildfires, and earthquakes.

Funds will be awarded between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2021. Applications are accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis. Grants will be awarded until funds earmarked for the fiscal year are depleted.

Institutions affected by Federal and State declared disaster events from 2016 to present are eligible to apply for funding. Applications citing global pandemics, including Ebola and COVID-19, will not be accepted.

Applicants must be institutional members of NCPC or NCMC, and must be within the declared North Carolina disaster areas as defined by FEMA or the Governor of North Carolina. Grants are not awarded to individuals.

Why Donate to NCPC?

Your membership dues support NCPC conferences, workshops, scholarships, and other programs that enable individuals and cultural institutions to preserve North Carolina heritage and culture. But your dues only cover part of the expenses. NCPC is a registered 501c3 organization, so your donations are tax deductible.

When you're completing your membership renewal form, consider adding an additional donation to enhance your contribution!

Amazon Smile

In November 2015 NCPC received its first AmazonSmile disbursement. Thanks to all of you who support us through this program. AmazonSmile makes it easy to support NCPC by shopping online. When you order items via AmazonSmile, the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price to NCPC. By selecting

NCPC as your designated charity, your purchases give back to NCPC at no additional cost to you. When you start your shopping with AmazonSmile you automatically support NCPC.
